TIP #1

TRANSFERS

How do you get from the Airport to the resort?

Getting to your destination city is only half the trip, especially if your hotel isn't located right next to the airport. Your travel agent should make arrangements for your hotel transfer before you arrive . That saves you time and stress at the airport. There are several types to choose from: private transfers, shared transfers or luxury transfers. Your budget may come into play here.

AT LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING WE ASK WHAT YOUR BUDGET IS SO WE KNOW WHETHER TO CHOOSE A BUDGET, MODERATE OR A DELUXE PROPERTY. LET LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING AGENT WEED THROUGH ALL THE CHOICES AVAILABLE.

Nancy Vallely, was very helpful and was with me every step of the way. She answered all my questions and if she she wasn't sure of something she immediately checked on it and got back to me. When I did not have access to WiFi on a Sunday she went on line for me to handle my airline upgrade. I appreciate her going above and beyond to assist me.

TIP #2

WHAT TO PACK

Packing for an all-inclusive is one of the easiest vacations to pack for. You need to pack more than one bathing suit and at least one hat which will be your wardrobe during the day with some cover ups. Throw in a few other items like tank tops, shorts, sundresses and sandals but you will need a few more outfits. In the evening you will want to dress a little nicer for dinner. Men should take some nice jeans and slacks with a couple of nice shirts. Don't forget a sweater or sweatshirt for the evenings that may get a little cooler and throw in a lightweight rain jacket or an umbrella because there is always a chance of rain in the tropics.

AT LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING ONE OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS AT ALL-INCLUSIVE RESORTS IS THE CASUAL DINING ALL DAY LONG SO YOU DON'T HAVE TO CHANGE FROM YOUR BATHING SUIT. JUST THROW ON A COVERUP AND YOU CAN EAT MOST ANYWHERE AT THE RESORT.

Nancy was delightful to work with. Not only was she pleasant but prompt in her handling of my upcoming all inclusive trip to Mexico but presented me options for my stay that best suited my style and purpose of travel . Something you can not get from booking online by yourself. The price I paid had value for my dollar.... So worth all the countless hours I would have spent searching on my own and then being disappointed during my stay. She knows the in and outs which saved time and money. Going somewhere again before year end. Thanks Nancy

TIPPING

Tips are not included and some say not necessary, but I always believe in tipping for great service. Make sure to take small bills. Most destinations accept US dollars. You may want to tip your bartenders, waiters and cleaning staff, and if you use a concierge service you may consider tipping them as well. A small tip is all you need for most countries because the cost of living may be a lot less than ours so consider where you are and tip accordingly. The workers at most resorts don't make a lot of money so your tip can make a lot of difference when providing for their families.

AT LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING ONE OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS ABOUT ALL-INCLUSIVE RESORTS IS LETTING OTHERS WAIT ON YOU WHILE YOU SIT BACK AND ENJOY YOUR TIME THERE. TOTAL PAMPERING!

"So easy to work with. Very patient with my constant questions. Explains EVERYTHING"

TIP #4

BRING AN INSULATED CUP

I know it may sound strange because all resorts have their own glasses which are usually smaller in size but when you are in the tropics a good insulated glass or cup keeps your drink cold longer and you don't have to make as many trips to the bar. It is great even if you only want a cold glass of water. It is also great to take if you are planning on leaving the resort for an excursion.

If drinking water at or off the resort always make sure it is filtered or bottled.

AT LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING ONE OF OUR FAVORITE THINGS AT THE ALL-INCLUSIVE RESORTS IS THE COFFEE SHOP IN THE MORNING. IT IS A GREAT PLACE TO RELAX AND SIP YOUR FAVORITE CUP OF COFFEE OR TEA.

"Nancy planned our trip to Hawaii and it was perfect. She always goes the extra mile to make sure her client is satisfied and is a joy to work with. She has extensive knowledge about different destinations and has a group of peer advisors she collaborates with regularly to find the spots offering beauty, amenities, fun, relaxation and value."

TIP #5

IS IT SAFE TO LEAVE THE RESORT

It is a great idea to experience the local culture and interact with the locals and support their local economy. There are always great excursions to be booked like swimming with turtles or dolphins, seeing the Mayan Ruins, swimming in a cenote, shopping and bargaining at a local bazaar in Mexico or visiting a beautiful waterfall and floating down an aqua blue river in Jamaica. You are out of the country, so you want to make sure you do them safely by booking the excursion through your travel agent. There are many choices based on your favorite type of activity.

ONE OF LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING'S FAVORITE THINGS ABOUT ALL-INCLUSIVES IS THE VARIETY OF NIGHT TIME ENTERTAINMENT FROM DINNER SHOWS ON THE BEACH TO WATER VOLLEYBALL IN THE POOL. ALWAYS SOMETHING TO DO OR SEE.

"Nancy went out of her way when planning our trip to get answer all of our questions and to make sure all of the details were taken care of. Great service and a great price."

TIP #6

THINGS TO DO WHEN IT RAINS

When you are in the tropics you should expect it to rain while you are on your vacation. So what kind of activities can I do on a raining day?

- Have a drink under a cabana
- Take a Tour of the Resort
- Enjoy a resort activity. There are always activities on your resort property that they create for rainy days.. Your concierge should have the day schedule
- Make friends at the bar
- Eat in a resort restaurant
- Work out at the resort gym
- Make it a spa day

A rainy day is still a great day at an All-inclusive Resort.

AT LIFE IS BETTER TRAVELING WE TELL CLIENTS TO TAKE A DECK OF CARDS OR EASY TO PACK GAME IN CASE OF A RAINY DAY. YOU CAN PLAY A GAME IN THE LOBBY.

"Nancy made arrangements for myself and 9 of my girlfriends to Mexico a side trip to celebrate our 50th high school class reunion. Being Senior Citizens she found the prefect resort in our budget, an all inclusive with an eye on every detail to meet our needs. The area our rooms were located together was very quite and peaceful yet close to all the adult only pools, dining and lobby. Our flight to and from was non stop, our seats were together. I will definitely use Nancy again!"

TIP #7 WI-FI SERVICE

Expect Wi-Fi to be Spotty. Most Resorts offer Wi-Fi in your room but if it doesn't come standard with your room you can usually purchase it and the cost is usually very affordable. Most resorts do offer Wi-Fi in certain areas around the resort like the lobby or maybe the coffee shop. So if you aren't working and you don't mind walking to make your phone-calls or check emails you won't need Wi-Fi in your room. YOU ARE ON VACTION, just relax and enjoy your time.

A good tip is when in a foreign country always leave your phone on Air-Plane mode so you don't have roaming charges. With most cell phone services if you are on Wi-Fi plus airplane mode you should not receive any roaming charges but always check with your phone carrier to see what your options are and what your coverage includes.

WE LIKE TO SUGGEST TO ALWAYS
TRY SOMETHING NEW WHEN YOU
ARE ON VACATION. EXPLORE NEW
